SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The magazine entitled Teeners From Holland 63 is classified as:
Objectionable.

This is because the publication promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes as outlined under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act).

The magazine contains a number of photo stories focusing on sexualised images of young females who are presented as teenagers. The magazine's main content is explicit photographs of nude females displaying their bodies and particularly their breasts, buttocks and genitals, or engaging in sexual activity, for reader titillation and sexual arousal. The magazine has a consistent focus on youthfulness and sexual availability. Though models are said to be 18 and over, and in some instances appear to be so, other aspects of the way in which the women are presented imply otherwise, in particular in the accompanying text. This other content combines to consistently legitimate the idea of sexual conduct with young persons.

This classification places a restriction on the freedom of expression outlined in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. The result of the publication falling within the criteria of s3(2) of the FVPC Act is prescribed by law, in accord with Parliament's intention that publications to which s3(2) criteria apply should be banned so as to prevent injury to the public good.
